The silver jubilee edition of the GUNI-SKPCPER newsletter marks the conclusion of a relentless contribution of SKPCPER not only in the field of education but also in the field of society. This edition is a true reflection of the progress and numerous accomplishments of students and staff at Ganpat University since 1996.

The unremitting performance of our students and staff has been recognized not only in Gujarat but throughout the nation. The NBA accreditation and NIRF ranking make us feel engorged with pride. The assemblage of events and achievements of the year 2021 is an extension of our rich legacy. The newsletter is a manifestation of the creativity of students and faculties, which transmits the commitment to quality research, broadens perspectives, and allows us to embrace upcoming innovations to overcome the challenges of change in society.

The college aspires to contribute to the sustainable and peaceful development of society through educational activities, which are only possible with the mutual synergy of faculty and students. I anticipate that you will fasten together and open new-fangled paths for the future.

I would like to pass on good wishes to the college for publishing a silver jubilee issue of the newsletter, which highlights the college's events and accomplishments for the year 2021. It also hands round as a witness to the college's high-quality teaching and follows a line of exploration.

As a renowned institution in the state, it has been showcasing talent in several fields, for which this newsletter is just a crisp reflection. I seem to be presumptuous to comprehend many more pieces of research and improvement, as well as other activities and happenings. I am certain that this newsletter will become a must-read chronicle of the happenings around us.

I congratulate the editorial team and wish them the best of luck in adding many more feathers in the future.

Dr. Mahendra Sharma
Pro Chancellor & Director General

When customary academic management in most educational institutes was hampered during the deadly spread of COVID-19, GUNI-SKPCPER not only managed the quality of teaching and skill enhancement but also demonstrated a commendable commitment to the enhancement of professional and cultural values, organising several events of social relevance.

The publication of the Silver Jubilee edition of the GUNI-SKPCPER newsletter illustrates our optimism and capability to turn a slew of challenges into a plethora of opportunities. Newsletters have always been an important connection among the students, the college, alumni, and stakeholders. This publication is quite reassuring, especially in these wearisome pandemic times, with pages dedicated to the hardworking staff, outstanding placements, and student accomplishments, as well as public health initiatives that contributed to society, such as the 100-bed COVID-Care Centre and NRI Doctors teleconsultation to COVID-19 patients, which were relevantly accomplished through the fanatical involvement of SKPCPER staff and students.

While we continue to struggle with COVID-19, this newsletter provides you with some exquisite memories to savor. I once again applaud the work of the entire editing team and wish them tremendous success as time goes on!

Dr. S. S. Pancholi
Principal and Executive Dean
GUNI - SKPCPER

The college newsletter brings highlights of interest, showcasing events and achievements of students and staff of the college. The professional and cultural heritage of Shree S K Patel College of Pharmaceutical Education and Research, the oldest self-finance college in Gujarat, which has 25 splendid years of lineage represented by the global presence of highly competent SKPCPER alumni, is being carried forward in presenting this special silver jubilee issue.

Though the year 2021 was full of uncertainties and hard times, we still managed to formulate the use of the limited opportunities to organize scientific as well as social on-campus and off-campus events for students and the community, attracting handsome partaking across the nation. Our students and staff also participated in and got rewarded in professional events at state, national, and international level.

I praise the editorial team, who have left no stone unturned to fetch an out-of-the-ordinary and worth collecting issue of the newsletter. I hope that captivates every reader.

Best of luck.

As a part of the tele-counselling campaign of Ganpat University, SKPCPER provided a platform for tele consultation to patients who may have COVID, post-COVID symptoms, other problems, or any severe conditions due to this soaring pandemic condition when the 2nd wave of COVID-19 was at its peak. We organised this tele-counselling virtually so that people can join at their convenience. Almost 20 eminent and expert doctors from different specialisations joined in this tele-counselling from California, New York, Los Angeles, and the USA and gave their precious time from their busy schedules to counsel over 241 patients from various states such as Odisha, Jharkhand, Rajasthan, West Bengal, and many more. Many of the patients benefited during that crucial time period, and it was very helpful for them. It was very fulfilling for us to provide such a platform to the people in need.
