Library Resources

K-Hub

K-Hub (Knowledge Hub) is a centralized digital learning platform integrated within the library system of the institute to provide students and faculty with easy access to a wide range of academic resources. It typically includes:

- E-books, e-journals, and digital databases
- Question banks, past exam papers, and study materials
- Video lectures, tutorials, and interactive learning tools
- Institutional repositories and faculty publications
- Links to open educational resources (OERs) and national digital libraries
